

Casey Costigan

Casey Costigan attended Indiana University from 1984-1988. He then attended Western Michigan/Thomas M. Cooley Law School where he graduated in 1991.

Following law school, he joined the law firm of Costigan & Wollrab, P.C. He practiced in the area of Civil Litigation for 15 years before he was appointed as an Associate Circuit Judge for the 11th Judicial Circuit in 2006.

As an Associate Judge, he spent 5 years presiding over criminal cases and 2 years presiding over family cases.

In 2014, the Illinois Supreme Court appointed him a Circuit Judge and in 2016 he was elected to retain that position.

From years 2014 to 2021, he presided over a major criminal felony docket. In 2021 he was selected as Chief Judge of the 11th Judicial Circuit. In addition to his administrative duties he currently presides over a juvenile delinquency docket. He was a former presiding judge of the McLean County Drug Court.

He is active as a community volunteer in the Bloomington/Normal community as well as previously serving on statewide committees for the Illinois Judiciary.

He is a presenter of the award winning program 7 Reasons to Leave the Party, which details the legal consequences of underage drinking and drug usage to high school students.