

Scott Drazewski has served as a Special Assistant State's Attorney for the McLean County State's Attorney's Office for the past 2 years. In that role, he represents the State's Attorney's Office for the McLean County Drug and Recovery Courts, and also the Eleventh Judicial Circuit's Veterans Treatment Court. Previously, Drazewski served as an associate and then circuit judge of the Eleventh Judicial Circuit for almost 24 years, the majority for which he was assigned to the criminal division hearing major felony cases. He was the presiding judge for the McLean County Drug Court from its inception in 2006 until 2014. He also served as a member of the Board of Directors for the Illinois Association of Problem-Solving Courts for 8 years.