

Emilio Fischer is a current Problem-Solving Courts Coordinator with seven years of experience working with McLean County Court Services. There, Emilio serves McLean County Drug and Recovery (Mental Health) Court Teams and is an active team member of the 11th Judicial Circuit Veterans Treatment Court. Problem-Solving Courts are voluntary probation programs, serving high-risk/ high-needs participants utilizing a multi-disciplinary, evidenced-based, and rehabilitative approach. Emilio strives to serve vulnerable populations, reduce recidivism, and encourage public safety. Emilio earned a master's degree in social work at Aurora University in 2013. Emilio has five years of experience in treatment roles before McLean County Court Services. Emilio is a current lecturer with three years of experience working with the Criminal Justice Department at Illinois State University. Emilio is inspired daily by his wife, Danielle Sipiora, and their two children. In his free time, Emilio likes to be active with family, enjoy a meal with others, and volunteer with his faith community.
