What you WILL be doing:

- Answering questions and providing information to low-income clients on civil legal matters.
- Working with Prairie State Legal Services staff who can answer any questions.
- Receiving coverage under Prairie State's malpractice insurance.
- Enjoying free breakfast thanks to McDonald's and State Farm.
- Providing a meaningful service for people with legal needs who cannot afford a lawyer.
- Spending time with local attorneys and paralegals from the McLean County Bar Association, Central Illinois Paralegal Association, and State Farm's Legal Department.

What you WILL NOT be doing:

- Taking cases or bringing home work.
- Representing clients in court.
- Working on cases that involve a criminal or traffic violation.

If you would like to volunteer, please contact Kathy Boyle by email at kboyle@pslegal.org or by phone at [309] 827-5021 Ext. 6802.
