

CRIMINAL LAW COMMITTEE

NEWSLETTER

Next Meeting: Wednesday, September 28, 2022, at 8:15 a.m. in the 5th Floor Jury Assembly Room of the Law and Justice Center.

Announcements: a CLE on bond reform, a.k.a. the SAFE-T Act, is scheduled for November 2nd with registration expected to open soon. If you have any suggestions for a CLE or would like to teach a CLE, please do not hesitate to let me know. There are no bad ideas.

Joint Our E-mail List: if you know of someone not receiving this newsletter who would like to join, please just let me know.

If There Is News: too often we find out about news and events after the fact because changes can happen quickly. When you learn of news or events, please post it to our Facebook Group at <https://www.facebook.com/groups/criminallawcommittee> or feel free to forward it to me.

Future Meetings/Events: we had to cancel our last meeting because it conflicted with a CLE related to Illinois' Felony Murder statute. Our next meetings are listed below. All meetings will be held in the 5th Floor Jury Assembly Room of the Law and Justice Center, unless otherwise noted. Meetings alternate between being held over the lunch hour and being held first thing in the morning. Members are welcome to come and go, as all of us understand the demands on our schedules, and we will seek to keep meetings as short as possible to accommodate everyone's schedules, provided we do not neglect our agenda.

January 4, 2023, at Noon

Thank you to our members and to those who participated at our meetings or shared their thoughts with me between meetings. I hope to hear from you with any suggestions you have, and appreciate everyone's time and attention.

The Criminal Law Committee newsletter and Facebook Group provides a central place where our criminal bar, including both prosecution and defense, can receive current and up-to-date information, announcements both about the bar and our courts, and otherwise have their criminal law-related needs met.
