

Judge David Butler, (Retired)

David Butler is a retired Associate Circuit Judge who presided in McLean County Circuit Court from 2005 until 2018. He is a 1980 graduate of the Southern Illinois University School of Law. David has a Master of Science degree in History from Illinois State University with a Master of Arts degree in Theology from Lincoln Christian University and Seminary. He has taught undergraduate law courses for thirty-eight years. Before taking the bench, he was in private practice for twenty-four years. David currently volunteers at Prairie State Legal Services assisting clients who are being evicted or in need of Orders of Protection.