

Firas Abunada, JD, is the principal of Firas Law located in Mokena, Illinois. His practice is primarily focused on foreclosure, bankruptcy, and bankruptcy adversary litigation (including matters related to domestic support obligations and divorce-related debt). Firas has been practicing since 2012 mostly in Will County as well as in Cook, DuPage and Kane Counties. Firas has represented debtors in filing for chapter 7 and chapter 13 bankruptcy throughout Chicago and the surrounding counties. In addition, he represents creditors in chapter 7, 11, and 13 bankruptcy matters and litigates adversary proceedings on behalf of debtors and creditors.