

Nargis Khokhar

Nargis Khokhar currently serves as a Guardian ad litem in McLean, Livingston and Woodford counties. Ms. Khokhar practices in civil and criminal matters, and has taught various courses in law and government at Eureka College.

She currently serves as an officer on the Executive Board of the McLean County Bar Association, chairs the Alternative Dispute Resolution Committee, and is an active member of the Association of Family & Conciliation Courts. In addition to practicing law, Ms. Khokhar serves clients as a certified mediator and high conflict divorce coach. She has a Bachelor of Arts Degree in Political Science from Rider University, and a Juris Doctor and Master of Arts in International Affairs from American University in Washington D.C.