

Speaker

Bryan Hinman, M.A., LCPC

Biography

Bryan Hinman has BA degrees in both psychology and philosophy from Southern Illinois University Carbondale and earned his master's in clinical psychology from Eastern Illinois University. He is currently the Associate Director of Court Treatment Programs and works closely with the local courthouse as a treatment advocate for clients involved in the criminal justice system. His work involves coordinating and managing the treatment components of the McLean County Drug Court, Jail-Based Medication Assisted Recovery Project, Recovery Court, and other programs where the needs of the criminal justice system intersect people with substance use or mental health issues.