

Brief Bio: Attorney Robert Schaller concentrates his practice on providing IRS tax relief to clients struggling with IRS back taxes. Schaller is both an attorney and registered certified public accountant, and he is president of the National Offer in Compromise Academy. Schaller is a national speaker to bar association committees. He has also published numerous articles appearing in national, state, and local law journals and law reviews. Schaller has also authored 22 books on taxes, bankruptcy, and client development available on Amazon.com. Schaller practices virtually throughout the State of Illinois with his physical office in Oak Brook, IL.