

David Finn
Biographical Statement

Dr. David Finn is a licensed clinical psychologist and the owner of the Associates in Human Development Counseling in northwest suburban Chicago Illinois.

Dr. Finn's practice provides a wide variety of counseling services for individuals and families including high-conflict divorce counseling, supervised visitation, and domestic violence intervention for offenders and parenting classes.

Dr. Finn's work primarily involves 604.10b, 604.10c and Supreme Court Rule 215 evaluations.

Dr. Finn also provides expert testimony and work product review services to assist attorneys engaged in custody litigation.

Many of Dr. Finn's services, including evaluations, can be done virtually via Zoom.

When Dr. Finn is not working, he enjoys cooking and playing piano, scuba diving with his two sons as well as horseback riding and being a personal ATM to his daughter.