Calli is a strong candidate and well-deserving of the 2023 Young Lawyer of the Year Award.

After successfully completing a summer internship and accepting an offer, Calli has excelled in State Farm's Corporate Law Department. Shortly after beginning, Calli took the time to meet individually with each of her individual business partners to establish trust and confidence in her legal counsel. She has led various Law Department initiatives, including providing critically important counsel on efforts related to State

Farm's marketing practices.

Work aside, Calli serves as Treasurer for the McLean County Bar Association. Never content with the work alone, Calli took it upon herself to improve and modernize the Bar's marketing efforts through establishing a more robust social media presence. She proactively volunteers for various subcommittee work and local legal events. Through it all, Calli offers new ideas and opportunities for social engagement.

Calli represents what is highly valuable to the local Bar: An out-of-state , young, bright, motivated attorney who has embraced and seamlessly transitioned into Bloomington/Normal life. Her energy and willingness to share new ideas and perspectives, coupled with her commitment to committee and volunteer work, make both the Bar and community stronger.
