

ISBA
Board of Governors
Under 37- Outside Cook County

Kaylan Huber, Danville. Attorney with Davis and Delanois, P.C., maintaining a general practice with a focus in civil litigation, estate planning, and family law. B.A., Indiana University-Bloomington; J.D. Indiana University-Indianapolis. Admitted 2015. Current activities: Treasurer of the Vermilion County Bar, Guardian ad Litem for domestic relations cases in Vermilion County, volunteer with expungement summits in Vermilion and Macon counties, board member of Your Family Resource Connection in Danville, board member of the Fifth Judicial Circuit Pro Bono Committee, and Chapter Advisory board member for Kappa Delta at University of Illinois. Past activities: President of the Young Lawyers of Vermilion County and board member of Vermilion County CASA program. Recipient of the Fifth Judicial Circuit Public Interest Law Initiative Pro Bono Service Award for 2018. Currently resides in Danville with her German shepherd Luke.

Please feel free to contact me with any questions or comments at 217-446-5255 or at khuber@davis-delanois.com.

