

Kanoski Bresney Law Firm – Associate Litigation Attorney

Kanoski Bresney growing personal injury law firm is seeking a highly motivated and qualified associate personal injury lawyer to handle a large and growing docket of cases. Candidates will preferably have 1 year of experience handling personal injury cases. Familiarity with discovery and litigation desirable; excellent research and writing skills required.

This position will primarily entail handling all aspects of pre-litigation and litigation personal injury cases along with managing a staff member(s) working with the lawyer on the cases.

The lawyer will be supported by an intake team who will complete all initial data required for the case, and further, skilled legal assistant(s) who will help lead client communications, prepare documents, and all demands related to your cases. Overall organization and attention to detail are necessary to this position along with the willingness and ability to regularly interact with clients, adjusters, and other lawyers/paralegals over the phone and in person. Excellent computer, analytical, and database skills are essential.

You will be a part of a fast-paced team environment and will have all needed support to allow you to grow as a lawyer and to focus on the proper workup of your cases in preparation for settlement or litigation.

The position offers a competitive salary along with full benefits, including health insurance, paid time off, and 401(k).

If you are interested in this opportunity, please provide your resume and salary history to Debbie Krohe, Human Resource Manager at marketing@kanoski.com.

Thank you for your interest and we look forward to hearing from you.
