

Kyle A. Korkus was born and raised in the Chicago Suburbs. Kyle received his Bachelor of Arts in Economics from the University of Illinois at Chicago in 2016 and his Juris Doctorate from the University of Illinois Urbana Champaign. While in law school, Kyle worked in the Community Preservation Clinic, serving McLean County residents facing home foreclosure. Kyle also interned with the McLean County State's Attorney's Office before joining them as an Assistant State's Attorney.

Kyle is currently an associate attorney with Brady, Connolly & Masuda, P.C. in Normal, Illinois. Kyle has served the McLean County Bar Association as Secretary in 2018-2019 and is currently a co-chair of the Young Lawyers Division, McLean County Bar Association.