Statement in Support of Nomination

Not only did Judge Lawrence have an admirable demeanor when on the bench, he was also extremely giving of his time and resources while serving on the board of governors.

Individual achievements in the practice of law

I am not sure since I only knew he from the time of being a judge. It was a pleasure to be in his court room.

Employment History - written or upload resume

Private practice then judge. I do not have details.

Service to the MCBA-the Community-pro bono service

Judge Lawrence served on the board of governors for at least 3 years and during his tenure towards presidency and after, he dedicated his time and energy in supporting lawyers and the bar association. He assisted in engaging lawyers and support staff to be involved in bar activities and other events. During his tenure he was able to secure sponsorships to bar events so that more funds could be allocated towards assisting others in need.
