

Todd C. Miller is an experienced and respected attorney who has practiced law in the State of Illinois for over thirty years. He moved to Central Illinois from the Chicago area in 1990. His practice has focused on family law.

Todd was Chief of the Peoria County State's Attorney's Office, Child Support Enforcement Division, for four years. He was recruited by the then McLean County State's Attorney to develop that office's Child Support Enforcement Division. He was Chief of that Division for over eight years.

In October 2007, Todd joined the firm of Lawrence, Moore & Ogar, continuing to handle a large case load of primarily family law and related issues. In 2013, the firm changed its name to "Ogar & Miller."

While with the Peoria County State's Attorney's Office, Todd was nominated for and accepted as an "Outstanding Young Man of America."

Todd has spoken extensively to bar, governmental and community groups on issues related to child support enforcement. Since 2015, Todd has taught Family Law for Paralegals at Illinois University. He has also taught classes on Real Estate Law and Constitutional law at I.S.U.

Todd is known for his strong negotiating skills and believes that a well-negotiated settlement is preferable to drawn-out litigation. However, he also has extensive courtroom experience in a number of Central Illinois counties. He has been a certified Guardian ad Litem for over a decade and has been a certified mediator since 2015. In 2020, Todd lead the committee that presented McLean County's first financial mediation training in over 15 years.

Todd is licensed to practice before the Circuit, Appellate and Supreme courts of the State of Illinois as well as the United State District Court for the Central District of Illinois. He is also a member of the Illinois State Bar Association and the McLean County Bar Association. He is a past chair Continuing Legal Education Committee, and the Guardian ad Litem training committee, and is currently the co-chair of the McLean County Bar Association's /Bar Committee,

Todd and his wife live in McLean County where they raise their two sons.
