

Todd Miller is overseeing a pro bono program for people meet the financial qualifications but cannot be assisted by Prairie State Legal Services due to a conflict of interest.

Most of the callers seek assistance relating to Orders of Protection and/or divorce.

We need additional attorneys who are willing to assist these parties on a rotating basis.

If you are able to assist with these cases, or if you have any questions first, please reach out to Todd at tmiller@ogarmiller.com or his paralegal Nichole Byers at nichole@ogarmiller.com.

There is no need to respond if you have already agreed to help.
