

Molly A. Recar is the Director of the Low Income Tax Clinic (LITC) for Prairie State Legal Services (PSLS). Molly came to PSLS as a Staff Attorney in the LITC in 2012 after graduating from Loyola University Chicago School of Law. While at Loyola, Molly earned a JD Certificate in Tax Law and participated in the Federal Tax Clinic and the Civitas Childlaw Clinic. Molly became the LITC Director in 2017. Molly specializes in tax issues impacting low income families and she has represented clients before the Internal Revenue Service (IRS), the Illinois Department of Revenue (IDOR), and the U.S. Tax Court. Molly received her undergraduate degree in History and Sociology from the University of Illinois at Urbana-Champaign and a Master's degree in Teaching from Pace University in New York City. Before attending law school, Molly participate in Teach for America (TFA), teaching kindergarten and first grade in low income neighborhoods in New York City and Chicago.