2019 Annual Committee Reports

Bench-Bar Committee

Relations between the bench and bar remain professional and appropriately cordial. We have nothing to report. No items of interest or concern were brought before the committee so the committee has not been active this year.

Paul Lawrence and Todd Miller, Co-Chairs

Bylaws Committee

There were no meetings during the fiscal year and no activity to report. Hunt Henderson, Committee Chair

Continuing Legal Education (CLE) Committee

The CLE Committee coordinated a number of successful and well-received programs again this year.

The following programs were presented since our 2018 Annual Meeting:

July 2018 – Family Law Basics for the Non-Family Law Attorney

August 2018 – Understanding Exposures in a Legal Liability Claim

September 2018 – The 29th Annual Legal Education Seminar

(Co-Sponsored by the Central Illinois Paralegal Association)

September 2018 – Different Approaches to Resolving Disputes

(Co-Sponsored by Association of Family and Conciliation Courts)

October 2018 – An Overview of Trademark & Copyright Law for the Artist and Non-Intellectual Property Lawyer

October 2018 - GAL Seminar

November 2018 – E-Filing Update

January 2019 – State of the Circuit

February 2019 – Section 1983: Litigating Constitutional Rights

February 2019 – Illinois Supreme Court Civil Cases Year in Review - 2018

(Co-Sponsored by the Appellate Lawyers Association)

April 2019 – QILDROs and Illinois Public Pension Funds

April 2019 – Understanding Implicit Bias

These programs provided over 1,684 CLE credit hours to our members, over 111 teaching credit hours, and netted over $19,787 in net income to the bar association.

The MCBA continues to be an “Accredited CLE Provider” with the Illinois Supreme Court’s MCLE Board.

For the remainder of 2019, the CLE committee is planning presentations on mental health, expungement and sealing, employment law, real estate and dissolution issues, and others.

The CLE Committee is a very active committee, and has benefited greatly from the hard work and dedication of the committee members, and of MCBA Administrative Assistant, Mary Sellmyer. Many thanks to Mary and the members of the committee for all your efforts.

Our thanks also goes to Judge Paul Lawrence and the MCBA Board and the other committees of the bar association who support our efforts and contribute valuable programming.

Emily Petri, Committee Chairwoman

Consumer Law Committee

The Consumer Law Committee of the McLean County Bar Association met on April 5, 2019. Daniel Deneen, Adrian Barr, Jeff Crabill, and Jeff Lindsay were in attendance. Chairperson Daniel Deneen asked about topics of relevance.

Adrian Barr stated one big area of concern for Prairie State Legal Services was judgment creditors sometimes obtain agreed payment orders against judgment debtors whose income is solely from exempt sources. He has provided a link to No More 'Debtors' Prison': Greater Notice, Protection for Judgment Debtors, <https://www.isba.org/ibj/2013/03/nomoredebtorsprisongreaternoticepro>.

In summary, under (c-5) If a citation is directed to a judgment debtor who is a natural person, no payment order shall be entered under subsection (c) unless the Income and Asset Form was served upon the judgment debtor as required by subsection (b-1), the judgment debtor has had an opportunity to assert exemptions, and the payments are from non-exempt sources.

Jeff Lindsay discussed debt collection cases under Supreme Court Rules 280 and 280.5. Those provisions should be reviewed by all consumer attorneys and attorneys for debt collectors.

Dan Deneen discussed the practice of creditors sending 1099-C forms for forgiven debt. He believes that if a consumer (or estate) has advised a creditor that a debt is disputed and called upon a debt collector or company to prove the validity of the claim and/or amount that it is inappropriate to send a tax form based solely upon the company's limited records.

Jeff Lindsay discussed continuing mortgage fraud. He does not like the practice of attempting to resell mortgages if defenses have been raised by the mortgagors.

Dan Deneen criticized what he believes is too great a leniency by judges in accepting "local coverage counsel" and not to require law firms to identify a "responsible attorney" who will communicate with opposing counsel and consumers on a file and will provide direct contact information. Local attorneys often appear with no further purpose than to obtain default judgments or to continue cases, and little or no information on the files. It is a burden upon consumer defendants to have to appear multiple times with no purpose, or any retained attorney. Dan Deneen described the practice as "wearing out defendants".

Adrian Barr reports that there is no active foreclosure mediation program although the Consumer Law Committee's understanding is that there is still a Circuit Clerk Fund for that purpose.

There being no further topics for discussion the meeting was adjourned.

Respectfully submitted, Daniel G. Deneen, Chairman

Corporate Counsel Committee

The Corporate Counsel Committee has between 15-20 members. Committee members should plan to have an upcoming meeting this calendar year to discuss goals, activities and budget needs over the next fiscal year to ensure outreach to local in-house or outside counsels for local organizations. Should any member of the Bar Association know of any in-house or outside counsel for a local organization, please encourage them to join the Bar and sign up for the Corporate Counsel Committee, at no extra cost, by contacting Mary Sellmyer.

Gregg Mecherle, Committee Chairman

Criminal Law Committee

The Criminal Law Committee has not been particularly active in the last few years. During that period, however, we have gathered a number of suggestions and agenda items, and the time has come to get “reorganized” and resume active committee operations.

The next meeting of the MCBA Criminal Law Committee will take place at 12:00-1:15 P.M. on Wednesday, July 31, 2019, in Courtroom 3A of the McLean County Law & Justice Center. Invitations will be distributed shortly by e-mail to Committee members, and more generally to all Criminal Law attorneys in McLean County through the MCBA weekly e-newsletter, to join our effort.

As we will lay out in the months ahead, we plan to welcome the new local Criminal Law attorneys into the fold, update the Criminal Law Bar on some recent major updates to statutes that will affect what happens in the criminal and traffic courtrooms, discuss the committee membership’s suggestions for potential improvements to the practice of Criminal Law in McLean County, organize some future CLE opportunities focused on our membership’s needs, and the like.

Members interested in joining our effort should contact the Committee Co-Chairs, Scott Kording (judge.kording@mcleancountyil.gov) and Jason Chambers (jason.chambers@mcleancountyil.gov).

Honorable Jason Chambers and Honorable Scott Kording, Committee Co-Chairs

Family Law Committee

The family law committee put on a CLE regarding Qualified Domestic Relations Orders and is planning an additional CLE on mental health issues in July. Jessica and Tristan will be stepping down as co-chairs and handing the torch over to Kyle Korkus and Tim Eckhardt.

Tristan Bullington and Jessica Jones, Committee Co-Chairs

Foundation Committee

Work continues on establishing the McLean County Bar Foundation. For the first part of 2019, corporate governance issues were addressed. The Foundation Committed filed the form reserving the name “McLean County Bar Foundation” with the Illinois Secretary of State. The Foundation has also put together draft by laws, a conflict of interest policy, and other key governance documents for review by the McLean County Bar Board of Governors.

The McLean County Bar Foundation is anticipated to be officially established and recognized as a Illinois non-profit organization sometime in the second half of 2019. The initial funding of the Foundation will come directly from the McLean County Bar Association funds. It is not anticipated that any direct fundraising for the Foundation will occur until next year when the Foundation is officially formed and fully operational.

The initial makeup of the Foundation Board will be at least 5 members (of whom 2 will be current McLean County Bar Board members). There will be opportunities to expand the Board membership of the Foundation and also opportunities to serve the Foundation in other ways.

If anyone is interested in finding out more about the Foundation or helping with it, please contact Ryan Gammelgard.

Ryan Gammelgard, Chairman

History Committee

The History Committee archives materials involving the McLean County Bar Association in order to protect, preserve, and provide accurate records of historical information for future generations. The History Committee also compiles attorney memorials with the McLean County Circuit Clerk, the McLean County Bar Association, and the History Museum.

As part of its ongoing archival project, the History Committee records lectures, events, and interviews. Lectures and events frequently address historical cases and/or bar history. Interviews are conducted with members of the bar upon retirement or after several decades of practice in order to record their lives, their stories, and their work. These recordings help shed light on the practice of law in McLean County, changes to that practice, and the role individual bar members played in that history. Since our last annual meeting, representatives of the History Committee have taken great care to attend and record interviews with the following:

- Hon. David Butler
- Hon. Lee Ann Hill
- Hon. Robert Freitag
- Alan Novick

As always, the History Committee encourages its members to contact one of its Chair via e-mail if they know of interesting events or persons who would make for good interviews concerning the practice of law in McLean County.

Furthermore, the History Committee is working on making archival footage available through the MCBA website as part of our ongoing mission to provide our history to future generations. We are also working on plans for the MCBA's 190th anniversary in 2022.

Thank you to everyone who helped in the last year, whether by making suggestions, conducting interviews, or being interviewed! Your work helps the History Committee meet our mission, and preserve the history of the McLean County Bar Association, its members, and the practice of law in McLean County!

Chair: Brendan Bukalski

Co-Chair: Julia Davis

Memorial Archivist and Coordinator for Annual Meeting: Dan Deneen

Deceased Attorney Funeral Coordinator: Rusty Depew

McLean County History Liason: Robert Porter

Law Day Committee

The Law Day Committee plans the annual luncheon and related activities associated with Law Day. The committee met periodically over the past year to plan the Law Day luncheon held on April 30, 2019. The luncheon, held at the Prairie Room at the Bone Student Center on the Illinois State University campus in Normal, had 148 in attendance. Attorney Don Craven was guest speaker, in line with the Law Day Theme of "Free Speech, Free Press, Free Society."

Retired Circuit Judge Ron Dozier was awarded the Lincoln Award of Excellence, and the Stepping Stones Program of the YWCA was presented with the Community Service Award. The Stepping Stones also received a $300 donation from the Bar Association. The committee additionally recognized Pantagraph reporter Edith-Brady Lunny. Ms. Brady-Lunny has covered the courts for many years and is retiring in June 2019.

A new addition to the 2019 program was to recognize those attorneys who have passed away since Law Day 2018. It is intended as a supplement to the recognition at the Annual Meeting in June.

Law Day income for 2019 totaled $3,780.00. Expenses totaled $3,903.84 (Copying expenses $100.00; ISU Catering $2,677.76; Prairie Room rental and parking $604.00; B&B Awards $222.08; and community service award donation $300.00).

The perpetual plaque, commemorating the Lincoln Award recipients, was updated.

The 2020 Law Day celebration is tentatively scheduled for Wednesday, May 6, 2020, with the location to be determined. The committee will explore the cost of holding the luncheon at alternative locations. The committee drafted and sent out a survey to determine members' interest in location, potential speakers and format, following this year's event.

Hon. Rebecca Foley, Committee Chair

Lawyers in the Classroom (LITC) Committee

LITC met on two occasions this year and solicited all of the area schools to offer attorneys to speak on almost any topic. LITC did a total of 18 presentations at various elementary, junior high and high schools. We will meet again in late July to gear up for the 2019-2020 school year.

Best regards, Jennifer Patton and Jessica Jones, Co-Chairs

Mock Trial Committee

On Tuesday, February 12, we hosted 16 high schools fielding 22 teams for our annual Regional High School Mock Trial Tournament at the McLean County Law & Justice Center. This group included 264 students and 80 parents and Coaches. They were from the High Schools of: Bloomington, Champaign Centennial, Chicago Christian, Maine South, Maine West, Niles West, Normal Community, Normal West, Pittsfield, Providence Catholic, St. Charles East, St. Charles North, Timothy Christian, Whitney M. Young Magnet HS and York.

We were fortunate to have 36 MCBA Members, interns and Justice Corps volunteers. Four members of the Circuit Court staff also volunteered their time to escort teams to their rooms and help with set up/tear down of the tournament. Mr. William Scanlin was kind enough to assist with the activities. This year, Mr. Tom McClure presented 'Section 1983: Litigating Constitutional Rights'. Twenty-five attorneys and volunteers attended the luncheon CLE. The program was provided at no charge as an incentive to the volunteer judges a hour of general CLE credit was approved.

*Matthew Koettters, Committee Chair
Mary Sellmyer, Scribe*

Pro Bono Committee

The McLean County Bar Association has entered into a contract with Prairie State Legal Services agreeing to provide volunteer attorneys to handle overflow pro bono work and in exchange Prairie State has funds available for expenses and costs related to pro bono client representation.

The types of cases referred (in descending order): family law, criminal record expungement/sealing, collection/garnishment, wills and POA's, mobile home/landlord-tenant, adoption, veterans' benefits, mortgage foreclosure/home ownership/other housing, other consumer finance and guardianship. The McLean County Bar Association has always had a pro bono committee and it has evolved over time from supplying the bulk of pro bono legal services to now assisting with the training and solicitation of local attorneys to handle the overflow from the Prairie State office.

In 2013, we were approached by the Public Interest Law Initiative to develop an 11th circuit judicial pro bono committee to work in coordination with tri-state and land of Lincoln. Members of our local PILI committee are listed web the at: <http://pili.org/pro-bono/judicial-circuit-committees/11thcircuit>

Although circuit wide, the local PILI committee duplicated the function of the McLean County Bar Association pro bono committee as it related to McLean County. It was the general consensus that these 2 committees should be combined and that was done a couple of years ago.

In the last year, the committee has sponsored two (2) Legal Advice Fairs, continued to focus efforts on outreach to Ford, Logan and Woodford Counties and emphasized recruitment and recognition of volunteers. On September 18, 2018, the 11th circuit pro bono committee and the 6th circuit pro bono committee held an Illinois Forum of Pro Bono in Logan County. On October 25, 2018, the committed took part in State Farm Law Department's Pro Bono Committee's pro bono fair. On November 1, 2018, a reception was held to commemorate National Pro Bono Week and recognize volunteer lawyers who work to expand access to justice. Additionally, the committee has worked with PILI as it develops a pro bono referral program in the 101 counties outside of Cook to assist active duty military and veterans, as well as their spouses and dependents, with their civil legal needs through the Illinois Armed Forces Legal Aid Network (IL-AFLAN).

Prairie State Legal Services referred 171 McLean County pro bono cases to 61 volunteer attorneys from July 1, 2018 to present. We have seen a large increase in pro bono referrals over the past five years. Some reasons for the increase are listed below:

- Retired volunteers – PSLS currently has four retired in-house attorney volunteers, Hon. David Butler, Hon. Charles Reynard, Alan Tatum, and Bruce Zyweic who handle pro bono cases.
- The bi-annual Legal Advice Fair – Volunteers from the MCBA, State Farm Law Department, and CIPA have helped 314 people since this event began in November 2015.
- The monthly Saturday Criminal Record Relief Program – in 2018 State Farm Corporate Law Department volunteers served 49 pro bono clients.

Carrie Haas, Chairwoman

Real Estate Committee

The Real Estate Committee's mission is to increase the proficiency of the real estate practice for the betterment of the general public and the members of the bar association. The Committee was very active in 2017 and revised the standard form Contract for Sale of Residential Real Estate. The Committee continues to work with Bloomington Normal Area Realtors (BNAR) in an effort to increase the proficiency of the buying and selling of real estate for the betterment of the general public. A subcommittee is working with the BNAR for the purpose of potentially developing a uniform one-step contract that would be approved by both the McLean County Bar Association and the BNAR.

Respectfully submitted, John L. Pratt, Committee Chair

Scholarship Committee

The Scholarship and Community Relations Committee met on April 26, 2019, and plans to meet again on November 15, 2019.

At our April meeting, we confirmed the names of the past MCBA Community Service Scholarship recipients. We also made changes to the scholarship application and prepared a plan to advertise the scholarship to law schools and the MCBA.

After our April meeting, Mary Sellmyer updated the plaque, which hangs on the wall in the Law & Justice Center, with the names of all of the scholarship recipients.

At our November meeting, we intend to award the MCBA Community Service Scholarship to a 2nd or 3rd year law student with ties to McLean County. The recipient must have achieved academic success and demonstrated a commitment to enriching the community by engaging in volunteer activities or pro bono services.

We intend to present the 2019 scholarship at the MCBA Annual Holiday Luncheon in December.

Adrian Barr, Chairman

Social Committee

We first want to thank the Board of Governors for increasing the social budget so that we could put on many more events than we have in the past.

Since we are so lucky to have four local breweries our social calendar centered around touring our local breweries and sampling their fine beers.

In July, we kicked off our tour by visiting Keg Grove with snacks provided by Reality Bites.

In August, we went to Midwest Food Bank and packaged corn flakes to be sent out by the truckload all over our country. We rewarded our hard work by visiting White Oak Brewery and sampling some fine foods from HyVee.

In October, we sponsored the happy hour at the conclusion of the GAL conference at the Radisson.

In December, the holiday happy hour was held at Bakery and Pickle and we were lucky enough to sample a wide variety of their unique hors d'oeuvres. The event was co-sponsored by Findlaw.

In February, we received a tour of the Destihl Brewery by fellow attorney and owner of Destihl, Matt Potts. We were then treated to all of their brews along with some great food all compliments of CourtCall.

On April 15th we celebrated tax day by touring the facilities at the Lil Beaver Brewery and enjoying all of their fine local brews.

On May 21st we enjoyed hearing some humorous stories from some of our more experienced attorneys at our monthly luncheon. Even though it was not technically a “social event,” I think we laughed harder that day than any other day throughout the year. Even without the benefit of consuming any local brews!

Our last social event of the year was our Family Day held at the Corn Crib on June 9th. Although our Bad News Barristers lost a hard fought battle with the Champaign Bar 22-19 we looked awfully good in our new MCBA t shirts. Look for those to be on sale soon.

And of course every Friday morning the lawyers enjoyed “Breakfast with the Bar” at Scouts in downtown Bloomington. If you haven’t joined us yet on a Friday morning, you should give it a try.

Finally, even though we had a great time this year, we also provided some service to our community by packaging food at Midwest Food Bank, providing presents and caroling to the residents of the McLean County Nursing Home and spending an evening at the Boys and Girls Club. Good job Lawyers!

Paul Lawrence and Helen Ogar, Co-Chairs

Underwood Committee

The Underwood Committee is tasked with fostering professionalism within the bar association. This includes coordinating a CLE luncheon or extended program twice per year – one in the fall and one in the spring, working with the CLE committee, and particularly seeking to provide opportunities for MCBA members to obtain professionalism credit hours. As a reminder, Illinois Supreme Court Rule 794 now specifically requires professionalism credit in the areas of (1) mental health and substance abuse and (2) diversity and inclusion. For this reason, the Underwood Committee programs prioritize providing continuing education in these areas, as well as general professionalism. This past year the Underwood Committee programs were as follows:

October / November 2018 – We welcomed Lawyers for the Creative Arts, an arts-focused legal aid organization out of Chicago, for a program on trademark and copyright law. We also worked with the CLE Committee to provide another professionalism program in the fall.

April 2019 – We heard from ISU Police Chief Aaron Woodruff on the topic of implicit bias, providing diversity and inclusion credit.

The Underwood Committee also seeks to maintain the “Principles of Professionalism” adopted by the MCBA in 2009 and encourages MCBA members to continue to strive to meet that aspirational statement.

Many thanks to all the committee members who served this past year, and to Mary Sellmyer for her assistance.

Nate Hinch, Chairman

Young Lawyers Division

The YLD has met and has established a monthly happy hour. The committee is currently planning a couple larger events including a CLE with some local judges. The committee is putting its focus towards encouraging young McLean county attorneys to get involved with the Bar Association and each other.
