

JUDGE BLACK and JUDGE FELLHEIMER'S COURTROOM

HOW TO APPEAR FOR YOUR HEARING REMOTELY (without coming to Court)—PLEASE READ CAREFULLY

In light of the coronavirus pandemic, the following procedures have been put into place to allow you to appear remotely for some cases in Judge Black and Judge Fellheimer's courtroom. This is the Small Claims ("SC"), Law Minor ("LM") and Arbitration ("AR") docket. Please make sure your case falls into one of those categories. You can only join the hearing on the date and time specified in the Notice of Hearing or Summons for your case. Afternoon cases, including Bench Trials, will be in-person at the courthouse, unless otherwise ordered by the Judge with separate instructions. The Court will be using the Zoom video-conferencing program for these court proceedings.

IMPORTANT: This procedure is only for the morning cases of Judges Fellheimer and Black. Afternoon cases will only be set for a Zoom hearing upon request of the parties or Order of the Court. Regardless, all trials will be conducted in person, not remotely, so parties must appear at the courthouse for all trials (not by Zoom).

*Counsel in cases where only one party is represented by an attorney should forward this information to the unrepresented party to ensure all parties are aware of the procedure. The court will include this information with all notices for re-scheduled cases and parties may wish to include it as an attachment to a summons to be served upon the defendant. We want everyone to be able to appear, and this system will not work if unrepresented parties are not aware of these procedures.

*If an attorney or party is not accustomed to using the Zoom application, then he or she should sign up for a free Zoom account and practice using the app before joining a court hearing. This can be found at <https://zoom.us/>. You must ensure that your "screen name" is the same as how you are named in the court case to avoid extended wait times.

*Attorneys and parties should "appear" in the Zoom meeting/hearing's waiting room approximately five minutes before the scheduled hearing time. We will admit you to the "hearing" room once both sides are present for a case. (Alternatively, depending on the number of people attending court via Zoom, we may admit everyone into the hearing room with the understanding that the judge will recognize and unmute attorneys/parties when he is ready to call certain cases). Please be patient when you are joining as other cases in the Courtroom may be on-going.

*There will not be an opportunity for negotiations during the hearing, so if parties want to negotiate, they will need to leave the meeting and rejoin thereafter. It is the party's responsibility to ensure they get future court dates before leaving a meeting. Additionally, both sides are strongly encouraged to communicate with each other in advance of the hearing to avoid additional delays during the hearing and possibly eliminate the need for a hearing. If you have resolved your case prior to the hearing and have confirmation of that from the other side, you do not need to appear for your hearing.

*Please also position yourselves so that your video camera can rest in a stationary position and not be moving around. All participants should ensure that they are visible in the camera when appearing for their hearings. Please limit background noise.

*Attorneys are welcome to share this invitation with their clients. Represented parties are welcome to attend the hearings with their attorneys if they wish, but represented parties should not address the Court unless permitted to do so. The attorneys will speak for their clients.

*Once admitted to the virtual hearing room, unrepresented parties (litigants who do not have attorneys) will be recognized and unmuted by the Court at the time the judge is ready to call their case.

*You must dress in an appropriate manner as if you were appearing in-person in court. Attorneys may dress in business casual attire. The use of virtual backgrounds is not permitted.

*The audio or video recording of the proceeding in any manner is strictly prohibited.

Default Judgments: The Judges will only enter if the party seeking a default judgment has either had these remote hearing instructions served with the summons or mailed to the defendant(s) with a Notice of Hearing and furnish proof and certify to the service or mailing.

*We ask for your patience during these hearings. Please remember that appearing remotely saves you time from coming to the courthouse.

*If you experience technical difficulties, including if the meeting link will not work, please contact Will Scanlon at 309-888-5266.
