

AV-rated civil litigation firm in Bloomington, Illinois with a focus on representing corporations, businesses, and the risk industry seeks an associate attorney licensed in Illinois with 0-5 years experience for a full-time position. Our clients include Fortune 500 and other national companies from the energy, retail, and insurance sectors as well as individuals and small businesses needing assistance. Ideal candidate will be able to work independently, manage a full caseload, and have an interest in personal injury defense and toxic tort litigation.

We offer a competitive salary and benefits package, including health insurance and 401(k) contributions.

The firm's location in Bloomington-Normal offers the opportunity to reside in an affordable college town ranked nationally as one of the best communities for families and recent college graduates, and is just about 2.5 hours from Chicago, St. Louis, and Indianapolis.

Reply with resume, transcript and writing sample to Vicki@varneylaw.com.