Statement in Support of Nomination

I have had the pleasure of practicing law with Dawn Wall for the past twelve years. Over that period of time, Dawn has tried more cases in State and Federal Court than I can count offhand. Dawn is a skilled advocate for her clients and is quite frankly one of the best attorneys I know. She has an incredible knack for understanding and explaining complex issues to the Court and jury. More importantly, Dawn is a consummate professional, mentor, and friend. She is always willing to lend a sympathetic ear and offer advice and support to her colleagues when the practice of law seems overwhelming. Dawn extends kindness to everyone she meets, and I am blessed to count Dawn as a friend.

Individual achievements in the practice of law

Dawn Wall has practiced law in Central Illinois for over thirty years. Her areas of expertise include representing corporate clients in commercial and business litigation matters as well as employment related matters.

Dawn has successfully argued cases before the Illinois Supreme Court, the Appellate Courts of Illinois, the U.S. District Courts in the Central and Northern Districts and the Seventh Circuit Court of Appeals.

Employment History - written or upload resume

Dawn Wall is a partner at Costigan & Wollrab, P.C. She joined the firm in 1987 after obtaining her Juris Doctor Degree from Southern Illinois University School of Law.

Service to the MCBA-the Community-pro bono service

Dawn Wall is a member of the Illinois State Bar Association, the McLean County Bar Association, and is a member of the Robert C. Underwood Inn of Court. Dawn has been an active member of Prairie State Legal Services. She has served on the Advisory Council of Prairie State Legal Services. Dawn currently serves on the Human Rights Committee for Homes of Hope and has served as a mediator and arbitrator in McLean County. Dawn has also served as a Board Member of the Victim Offender Reconciliation Program ("VORP") of McLean County.
